Fabulous family home for sale!

Situated in a quiet street in Central George within walking distance to York High, George South Primary as well as a Private School and one of the favorite malls in George.

This is a large home with open-plan living areas, leading through the stunning chef's kitchen with a marble breakfast nook to a large lounge, dining, and entertainment area with built-in braai that leads out to the deck and sparkling pool.

This makes for easy living and effortless entertainment.

For those colder winter nights, a fireplace in the lounge will ensure a lovely cozy atmosphere.

When entering the home through the front door you have an office (with a separate entrance) on your right and the lovely front garden to look out onto on those rainy days.

With a camera security system in place and good fencing all around the house,...
